

Desire and Intimacy

Teachers

James Stevenson

James's passion is to help call forth our human potential and our soul. His weave brings together more than 19 years experience in techniques, practices and information from the cutting edge of Neuroscience, Tantra, Biodanza, Shamanic & Energy Work, Integral theory and Taoist practices to create a spirituality that is rooted in the body. His evolutionary approach is to work on all lines, levels, states and parts of ourselves in bringing forth our fullest potential.

His work in meditation and tantra work draws on many different traditions and paths he has studied from Kashmir Shaivism, Baul mysticism, Advaita Vedanta, Vajrayana Buddhism, Integral systems and Neo-tantra. He was very much influenced by the enlightened master Osho and enjoyed spending time in Pune and the Humaniversity where he became an AUM meditation leader.

His shamanic work includes being Vision Quest rites of passage guide, holding Sweatlodge Ceremonies as well as Sacred Cacao Rituals. He is also part of the International School of Temple Arts faculty and the Regional Organizer for Asia. He has been dancing Biodanza since 2003 and now works as a teacher and a didactic teacher (qualified to teach other teachers in Biodanza Schools). He also leads ecstatic dance sessions, and ran the popular Awaken conscious night club in Edinburgh for many years. www.awakenaslove.com

Catherine Hale

Catherine's work takes people into the depths of their being allowing them to discover the truth of who they are, through the exploration of their shadow. In this journey of the soul she guides them to return to the light so they can shine brighter and bolder and to be the love that they are.

With over 20 years of teaching experience Catherine blends the traditions of spiritual psychotherapy with shamanism, trauma healing and body-based modalities with energy work and Tantra.

Her work with clients is about embodiment, taking people into the places where they have disconnected and reawakening their capacity to feel deeply. To rediscover how to feel safe, how to experience agency and to move beyond a place of triggering. Here the connection between sexuality and spirituality is key, and supporting people back into pleasure is the pathway.

She offers empowering workshops, individual sessions, professional training and retreats in:

- Energy orgasm
- Healing from trauma
- Conscious relationships
- Somatic sexuality and intimacy coaching
- Womb healing
- Energy healing
- Tantric practices
- Scar tissue healing

Her training has been extensive and her teachers include: Baba Dez, Janine MacDonald, Bruce Lyon, Andrew Barnes, Dr. Betty Martin, Ellen Heed, Sheri Winston, Steve Haines, Deej Juventin, Uma Ayelet Furman, OSHO and of course her beloved Bart.

Catherine has a passion for learning and is due to qualify as a TRE (Trauma Release Exercises) practitioner and a Sexological Body Worker in June 2017.

She is a faculty member of ISTA and facilitates global Spiritual Sexual Shamanic Trainings (<https://www.schoolof templearts.org/>)

Sy and Ash Balderson

We hold Love Lounges, Playshops, and one-to-one Love Coaching sessions in the UK and all around the world. We have a playful, creative & alternative approach to life and have been loving, working and playing together for 23 years. We bring this wealth of relationship & loving experience to everything we do and a session with us is an invitation to come and discover your deepest delicious self. We share from our own experience through a variety of mediums including Tantra, Sacred Sexual Healing, Sexological Bodywork, energetic awareness & Conscious Touch. We hold deeply delicious spaces where we encourage conscious connection and juiciness on every level.

In all our playshops and private sessions we are here to ensure you feel really safe and supported in your choices and explorations of yourself, whether individually or in connection with others. We offer you a space to re-connect with your own true expression of sexuality and joy, so... Come & Play!

Sy & Ash
"Be More!"

syandash@syandash.co.uk
<http://www.syandash.co.uk>
<http://www.facebook.com/syandash>

Lin Holmquist

Lin started her spiritual journey early in life. With her home deep in the Swedish forests it was natural to her to find the shamanistic path and to learn how to listen to the animated life in the wilderness in the woods. After finding a lot of healing in yoga, her journey turned to India where she studied yoga, therapy and tantra with scholars, nuns and mystics for a few years. She is also educated in NLP, massage, she is a doula (spiritual midwife) and nutritionist. The journey of yoga brought her deep contact with the science of the body, breath and movement but it was not until she found the practise of tantra that she really found her deep truth. Tantra led to a powerful awakening of kundalini. A journey that made her change her view on life from doing to being. From performing to receiving. After kundalini awoken her path has been the path of her true hearts calling.

Lin now works world wide with big events like the tantra festival at Ängsbacka, deep trainings, smaller workshops and individual healing sessions.

Lins dream is to wake up in a world of peace - and her truth is that peace can not be created trough resistance of war. Peace can only be created trough love and the world needs a revolution of love - right now. That revolution starts with YOU!

#loverevolution

Please also link to my homepage: www.theartoflove.nu

Adam Wilder

Adam's passion is bringing people together. The more we know about ourselves, the more we can be with others. Adam is known for creating an atmosphere of permission and combining it with humour to help people drop into and explore new parts of themselves. He is a champion of intimacy and human connection.

Over the last 15 years Adam has been exploring sexuality, performance, ritual, theatre, relationships and brings diverse experience to his work. In 2012 he started Shhh Dating - a speed dating company where talking is replaced by eye gazing and non-verbal connection games. His performance work led him to create Clowning in Nature with Philip Burgers.

Adam considers himself an eternal student and continues to study sexuality, relationships, gender, meditation and ritual. He shares his experience through workshops, events and retreats.

Xavi Domènech

A contemporary mystic, he is one of the most recognized masters of Tantra in Spain. He defines Tantra as “to let oneself be touched by Existence.”

At the young age of 16 he began the search for Self by exploring different aspects of Tantra that rapidly and completely changed his life. As a result, this led him to decide to abandon all social and cultural activity to further understand and delve into the spectrum of Tantra. Soon after, he came across Osho.

When he was 19 he began to share his experience in social centers and then went on to devote his entire life to it and professionally continues to do so today. His intense and ongoing research resides in the field of tantra, alchemy and mysticism, and humanistic psychotherapy.

Within his more than 15 years of teaching experience, he has guided hundreds of courses and thousands of people. Thanks to his great communication skills, he manages to create an atmosphere of love, presence, relaxation and confidence that allows participants of his courses to delve into the transformative alchemy of Tantra in a comfortable, safe, liberating and inclusive way.

The pinnacle of his teachings is undoubtedly his 3 year-long group of personal transformation: the Tantra Training. It is offered in Europe, Asia and America, and he is its director and teacher.

He is also trained in Taoist Alchemy, Chiromassage, Namikoshi Shiatsu, Acupuncture (Akenabe method), Family Constellations, Codependency, healing the inner child and Pulsation (bioenergetics).

WWW.TANTRA.TRAINING